The following information has been provided by Brenda Hennessy (nee Stephenson). My grandmother Clara Stephenson (Barugh) was born in Beverley in Yorkshire. Clara was an excellent pianist and joined with many other women in the United Kingdom to raise money for a statue of Prince Albert after his death. Queen Victoria wrote to her to thank her for doing so. Clara married my grandfather George Herbert Stephenson and lived with him in Cairo for most of her life. Clara spent the last years of her life in Canberra. She died in 1935 and is buried in the graveyard of St John's Church Canberra.

My father Harold Stephenson was born in London in 1896. He grew up in Cairo where his father was a chemist. He returned to England in 1914 in order to attend University but joined the British Army and served in the 2nd Battalion Grenadier Guards until he was discharged in 1919. He migrated to Australia and was granted a Soldier Settlement Block near Maleny in Queensland but eventually walked off the land as it did not provide him with a living. He moved to Canberra in the mid 1920's and joined the Fire Brigade and served with them for 33 years. He married Ethel Ensor in 1930 and they raised 5 children while Harold worked at Manuka Fire Station. He was a member of The Lady Gowrie Services Club and the Ex Guards Association. Harold died in Wollongong in 1981 and his ashes are interred next to his mother's grave in St John's Churchyard.

My mother Ethel Marjorie Stephenson (Ensor) was born in Winton Queensland in 1906. She came to Canberra in the late 1920's and commenced training as a nurse at Canberra Hospital. After her marriage she devoted her time to raising her children. Ethel and Harold lived most of their lives in Canberra and retired to Narooma in their later years. Ethel died in 1990 and her ashes are interred with Harold's ashes in St John's Churchyard.
